

New Publications in Environmental History of Modern Japan

International Workshop
February 4, 2015
EHESS, Paris

Organized by Aleksandra Kobiljski (CRJ/EHESS)
In collaboration with Paul Jobin (University of Paris Diderot/CRCAO) and Bernard Thomann (INALCO/CEJ)

9h00 – 9h30 Welcome & Introduction

Charles-François MATHIS (RUCHE/University of Bordeaux) & Aleksandra KOBILJSKI (EHESS)

9h30-11h00 From Green to Toxic Archipelago: Historiographical Sketch

Akihisa SETOGUCHI, historian, associate professor, University of Kyoto, Japan
Robert STOLZ, historian, assistant professor, University of Virginia, USA
Paul JOBIN, sociologist, associate professor, University of Paris Diderot

11h00-11h15 - Coffee break

11h15 -12.45h Book presentation

Akihisa SETOGUCHI

Nihon no dōbutsukan: hito to dōbutsu no kankeishi 日本の動物観 –人と動物の関係史

[Japanese attitudes toward animals: a history of human-animal relations in Japan], Tokyo: University of Tokyo Press, 2013.
Chair: Bernard THOMANN, associate professor, INALCO/CEJ

12h45-14h00 - Lunch break

14h00-15h30 Book presentation II

Robert STOLZ

Bad Water : Nature, Pollution, and Politics in Japan, 1870–1950.
Durham: Duke University Press, 2014.

Chair: Delphine SPICQ, associate professor, Collège de France

15h30-15h45 Coffee break

15h45-17h30 Roundtable

Health, Industry and the Ecumene in Writing Environmental History of Japan

Augustin BERQUE (professor emeritus, CRJ/EHESS)
Bernard THOMANN (associate professor, INALCO)
Judith RAINHORN (associate professor, University of Valenciennes),
Yu INUTSUKA (doctoral candidate, University of Tokyo),
Aleksandra KOBILJSKI (associate researcher, CRJ/EHESS)

Location : Room 640, EHESS, 190 Avenue de France, 75013
Free w registration: aleksandra.kobiljski@ehess.fr